PROFILE

I see myself as an ambivert with a lot of humor, good energy and a never-ending thirst for knowledge. I want to work with people who inspire me by doing what they love, at a workplace where I can keep working on the skills I have now and learn new ones.

My goal right now is to find my first job as a junior developer, with an opportunity to grow in the future. It's important to me that I can keep learning and get better at what I do, and then perhaps down the road I can start learning some backend as well. But for now, I can't wait to get started on my frontend career.

EDUCATION

Higher Professional Degree, Noroff

Oslo, Norway

Aug 2018 — Jun 2020

A 2 year vocational school with a huge focus on design (interaction design, UI, UX, design methods, etc) and JavaScript/React. Some skills learned at the school includes Redux, HTML5, CSS, SASS, NPM, Yarn, Git, Gulp and Webpack, as well as thorough project planning and team work.

EMPLOYMENT HISTORY

Customer Service Specialist, Mr. Green LTD

Sliema, Malta

Jul 2017 — Dec 2017

I worked as a CS Specialist for the online betting company Mr. Green (and later also their sister company Garbo) over live chat, email and phone. Primarily I was working with customers in the EU, but also with customers all over the world if needed.

My role was to help customers with queries and issues, validate personal information for payment withdrawals in cooperation with the payments department, and most importantly keep an eye out for gambling addiction and make sure that customers played responsibly.

Dental Assistant, Stibor & Waller

Kongsberg, Norway

Jul 2014 — Mar 2016

I took calls and booked appointments, cleaned instruments, took x-rays, prepared chairs and needed tools etc between patients and made sure the clinic was clean.

And of course a quick run to the coffee shop every now and then!
